that I am a constant reader of that stanch friend of those who fought and died to maintain this glorious Union. Lately in its columns Comrade W. A. Douglass, of Litchfield, Ky., exprest his preference for Washington City as the best and most desirable place to hold our next National Encampment. I percide upon the place will take Washington. I have never been there, and am very anxious to visit the Capital of our great Nation, that historic spot, before the final roll call comes for me. I am sure there are thousands of my old comrades who, like myself, desire to feast their eyes upon that beautiful city around which so many interesting cluster, and in which American citizen has a more than ordiary interest .- S. Joint Installation.

A joint installation of J. B. Sloan Post, G. A. R., and the Phil Sheridan Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., took place at Penn Yan, N. Y., Jan, 2, in their room before a large number of abers. Past Commander S. B. Dunton officiated as Installing Officer for both organizations. Speeches, songs, a social time and bountiful supper were the attractions of the occasion.
